Hospitality

£250k
Business Finance

This hospitality and leisure company has seen a significant amount of growth over the last two years – both organic and via the acquisition of other businesses and large capital investments in infrastructure

Reward's Business Finance facility provided this seasonal business with working capital and also gave them a hunting pot for potential further acquisitions

Introduced by a well known broker

Engineering

£600k
Invoice Finance Plus

Reward supported the management buy in team on acquiring the shareholding of this southern based engineering business

Reward's ability to leverage multiple assets was key to the funding package – a £600k facility combining a £200k invoice finance line and a £400k interest only loan – supported by plant and machinery and off balance sheet property assets, enabling the team to acquire the business

Distributor

£350k
Business Finance

Reward was approached by a well known introducer on behalf of this client who was seeking an urgent facility to repay their overdraft in full to their bank, which needed to be done in seven days, along with a requirement for working capital to fund some upcoming orders

Reward supported this long standing business in meeting the tight timescales for them to satisfy their bank and also for them to fulfil their orders

Retail

£225k
Business Finance

An entrepreneur became aware that a long established local authority owned asset had been earmarked for closure or sale

Keen to secure the asset, safeguard local community jobs and build their own growing business they were introduced to Reward, who supported them in the purchase of the asset

Security was a mixture of corporate and personal assets
