Here's a selection of our deals undertaken in August 2019...

Haulage

£550k
Business Finance

The purchase of a competitor in 2018 brought unexpected cash flow pressures and falling profits to this long established haulier

Having sought professional advice it was agreed to form a new company

Reward provided the funds to purchase the company premises and repay all bank facilities, saving over 40 jobs in the process

Construction

£600k
Invoice Finance Plus

When their current Invoice Finance provider refused to increase the funding line, our client found themselves needing a speedy alternative which provided the headroom needed to fulfil urgent contracts

Our combination of an Invoice Finance facility with a flexible overpayment enabled them to meet key deadlines and take their business forward

Electrical Contractor

£450k
Business Finance

An established North West based company completed a turnaround strategy and returned to profitability

The sale of its primary trading residence was taking longer than expected, and the incumbent funder had come to end of its term and needed to be repaid

Reward advanced sufficient funds to repay the incumbent funder and provided additional working capital, via a broker Introduced deal

Development

£575k
Business Finance

An experienced South Yorkshire property developer and entrepreneur asked Reward to support them on the conversion of an old Public House into flats and retail units

The project was part completed and needed a cash injection to finish it off

Development finance and all its restrictions was not the answer, the client simply needed cash to complete the project – Reward took external assets to secure the deal for the client
