

Deal Alert |

Media
£300k | Business Finance

A long established media business, that enhances back catalogues of TV programmes and films onto a HD platform, came to Reward for a financial solution after running into cash flow issues

The company's Director put up security for a Business Finance loan to help the business get back on track

This media company can now continue to restore many famous programmes that we can all continue to enjoy in high definition