A returning Reward client needed to quickly leverage off an investment property to take advantage of a purchase opportunity for his clothing business

On the same day...

- The client was interviewed
  - The property was visited
  - A new second charge was taken
  - The loan agreements & ILA were signed up
- AND
- Funds were transferred to the client

The deal was done from start to finish in five hours

Reward helped this client when their bank couldn't provide urgently required funds for them to be able to complete a valuable order for a famous European show

Reward was able to deliver a Business Finance facility on a revolving basis to allow the client maximum flexibility, and the ability to repay and redraw as their cash flow dictates
