

Events Company £1.2m | Invoice Finance Plus

This long standing, well-established company providing scaffold based event structures wanted to take advantage of an invoice finance facility, alongside other assets to facilitate growth projections when the world returns to normal post COVID

Reward's Invoice Finance Plus was the perfect product for this client who wants to build a long lasting working relationship with a lending partner

The deal was introduced by a well known firm

Developer £700k | Business Finance

Quality housebuilder with many years experience in construction

This client is keen to rapidly complete the final part of their development before stamp duty changes in March 2021

Reward's flexible Business Finance facility will allow sales to complete and redraw the facility over the coming months

Introduced by a well known broker network